

City Council Agenda Bill

20361

Bill Number

Subject: Staff presentation recognizing Danne Neill for her service on the Planning and Development Commission.

Summary Statement: Danne Neil was appointed to the Planning and Development Commission in June, 2009. During her tenure, Danne worked on many important and controversial projects, including sub-area plans for both the Samish Way and Fountain District Urban Villages, several neighborhood plan amendments and the Waterfront District Sub-area Plan. Danne also volunteered additional time to serve on the Shoreline Committee.

Danne was a valued member of the Commission. She made sure the general public's voice was heard throughout any discussion and she always listened to all sides and acted with the community's best interests in mind. Mayor Linville, staff, and the City Council wish to thank Danne for her service to the City and the citizens of Bellingham.

Re: Planning and Development Commission

Dear Danne:

Thank you for serving with the Planning and Development Commission from June 2009 to December 2013. I would like to thank you for the time and effort you gave the community during your term. Enclosed is a certificate of appreciation – a small token of the City's acknowledgment of your outstanding contribution.

As you know, much of the quality of a community is a result of the vision, generosity, and affinity for hard work of its members. You have given generously. The City is better because of your work. Please know that your efforts on behalf of the people of Bellingham are appreciated.

Thank you for all of your hard work, Danne. Best wishes for your future ventures!

Sincerely,

Kelli Linville
